Dear Applicant,

Your trade mark application has passed the submission stage and has been accepted. Your trademark has been advertised as accepted on the register.

What you need to do now

Attached to this letter are the details of your trade mark. Please review the details to ensure they are correct as they will appear on your certificate of registration. If they are not correct then please update them via your registered attorney.

What will happen next

An applicant has to assert both use and intent to use for state approvals in the same application. 24 C.F.R. §2.34(b). Accordingly, applicant must either (1) select all of these bases for approvals or (2) divide these approvals between the two bases, as appropriate. See TMEP §806.02(b). The IP Australia assigned approvals are mandatory to file as per the Search Clearance Document generated by the Trademark Electronic Search System.

Things to be aware of

If your trade mark is opposed you may be liable for the costs of opposition. The IP Australia must receive applicant's response to this letter within 48 Hours of the issue date below or the application will be dead.

Details of your trade mark can be viewed after submitting your approvals. IP Australia will register your trade mark within 20 working days

Yours sincerely,

IP Australia
